Molecular Data Usage

MiLaboratories Inc. stores data uploaded on VDJ.ONLINE. It is needed to provide continued processing of the data. MiLaboratories Inc. collects anonymized statistical data from uploaded files.

Databases of molecular data on the VDJ.ONLINE web site include such examples as nucleotide sequences, protein sequences, macromolecular structures, molecular variation, gene expression, and mapping data. They are designed to provide and encourage access within the scientific community to sources of current and comprehensive information. Therefore, MiLaboratories Inc. itself places no restrictions on the use or distribution of the data contained therein. Nor do we accept data when the submitter has requested restrictions on reuse or redistribution. However, some submitters of the original data (or the country of origin of such data) may claim patent, copyright, or other intellectual property rights in all or a portion of the data (that has been submitted). MiLaboratories Inc. is not in a position to assess the validity of such claims and since there is no transfer of rights from submitters to MiLaboratories Inc. has no rights to transfer to a third party. Therefore, MiLaboratories Inc. cannot provide comment or unrestricted permission concerning the use, copying, or distribution of the information contained in the molecular databases.

Human Genomic Data Submitted to VDJ.ONLINE

If you plan to submit genomic data from human specimens, it is your responsibility to ensure that the submitted information does not compromise participant privacy and is in accord with the original consent in addition to all applicable laws, regulations, and institutional policies.

Privacy Policy

MiLaboratories Inc. provides this Web site as a public service. We do not collect any personally identifiable information (PII) about visitors to our Web sites. We do collect some data about user visits to help us better understand how the public uses the site and how to make it more helpful.

Medical Information and Advice Disclaimer

It is not the intention of MiLaboratories Inc. to provide specific medical advice but rather to provide users with information to better understand their health and their diagnosed disorders. Specific medical advice will not be provided, and MiLaboratories Inc. urges you to consult with a qualified physician for diagnosis and for answers to your personal questions.
